Beloved Parishioners and Friends,

With the coming of April, Holy Week is upon us. It is a time to remember when God saved us through the passion, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Remembering is an important human capacity. Today I got a call. A seminary classmate for seven years died yesterday. He had a kidney transplant in college and spent most of his adult life battling his ongoing kidney problems. I remembered him and the many days of laughter. I also recalled his unique twist on life. Later in the day another memory was triggered. It was Easter Sunday morning some forty-five years ago. We got a sad phone call that our former neighbor had drowned. He was a young boy and it was shocking to me. I struggled to juxtapose Easter Alleluia and a lifeless kid who had only begun to live life.

Holy Week focuses on the reality of death. Light shines in darkness, but it is often shrouded. Christians struggle with the same challenges as every human. The true depth of Easter joy is only possible after traversing the sheer agony of suffering and death. Our Easter faith is not a cheap remedy for life's problems. Easter faith is a courageous rejection of the temptation to despair. It gives us hope in the face of meaninglessness, doubt, and fear. It is the reminder that death is real, but life is more real. Easter faith is a message that a war-weary, suffering-weary, death-weary world longs to hear. So tell the story. Invite someone to church. Be a light in the darkness!

Fr. Jeff ☩
