Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Praying alone is actually impossible. We are always part of the church and whenever we are praying, though we may not hear them, millions, actually billions of prayers are simultaneously being offered. We pray, first of all, with and in Jesus, Who is at the "right hand of the Father" interceding on our behalf. We pray with the host of heaven (ben Elohim), or the "Sons of God" (we call them angels or messengers). Cherubim and Seraphim, the 4 Beasts, and 24 Elders worship endlessly. The departed Saints worship Him as do the living ones. Saints, holy ones, are those who belong to God. We are saints, even if no one will ever name a church after us!

Keeping this in mind, we are reminded that we are all in it together. I have recently begun praying the Prayer of St. Benedict and the Prayer of St. Patrick. Both prayers are focused on protection and consecrating ourselves to God. I go to YouTube sometimes and listen to various recordings and pray along. Many of them have accents which are a helpful reminder of the universality and diversity of the church. I realize I am praying with others, not just in our parish but around the world. And prayers for protection from "the world, the flesh, and the devil" are always of value. We live in dangerous times, locally and globally. YOU are a priest of Christ, assigned to pray for the world. Start and end your day with prayer. Pray for yourselves and personal concerns. Pray for the church and the world. Often and sincerely.

Fr. Jeff ☩
